1994 Beacon • Volume 68

Change! The class of '94 has seen its share of it. It is something we have experienced much of in the past, are experiencing now, and are certain to experience in the future.

Serious school changes began for us when, as seventh graders, we were told that we would be changing schools as eighth graders. We became the first class to attend CHS for five years. We spent our first two years nurtured in the comfort of our clusters. Change again came when, as sophomores, we were no longer clustered and we joined the mainstream of the student body. Throughout The Changes

Another major change occurred during our sophomore year. The school went to a new trimester system. Our class periods were longer, and we took only 3 classes a day.

Throughout the many changes the Class of '94 has experienced, the class has displayed a terrific ability to survive, thrive, and succeed. This was accomplished through the perseverance and resiliency on the part of the students as well as on the part of the administration and staff at CHS.

As we leave CHS, we know that life holds for us many new experiences and changes. Although the changes we experienced at CHS were numerous, and sometimes unpleasant, we know that we have grown because of them. This growth is sure to be a great assistance to us as we continue our education and our lives beyond our high school years.

STUDENTS KEEP A SENSE OF HUMOR

CHS Students Working, Playing, And Relaxing.

Amelia, Sokum, and Eloisa prove that three is not a crowd.

Trinh and Tam comfort each other as they consider their college choices.

Simone flashes that sweet, innocent smile.

Ha wonders if she can connect all four.

Eddie and Victor seem to enjoy doing their work.

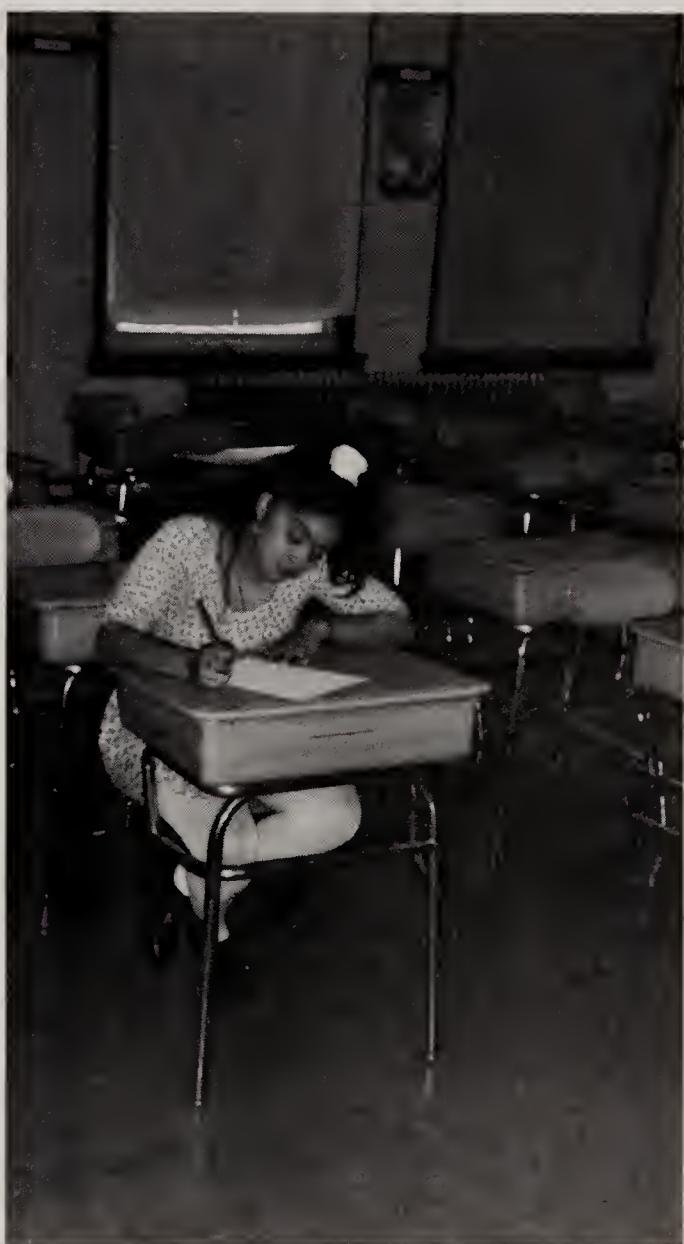

Studious Seniors Hit The Books

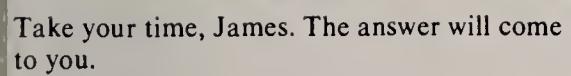

Wilbur and Lisa agree that teamwork is a great way to broaden their knowledge.

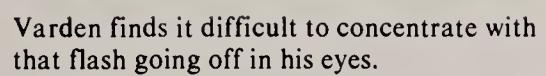

Nora, Victor, and Walter do not seem too worried about taking the S.A.T.'s.

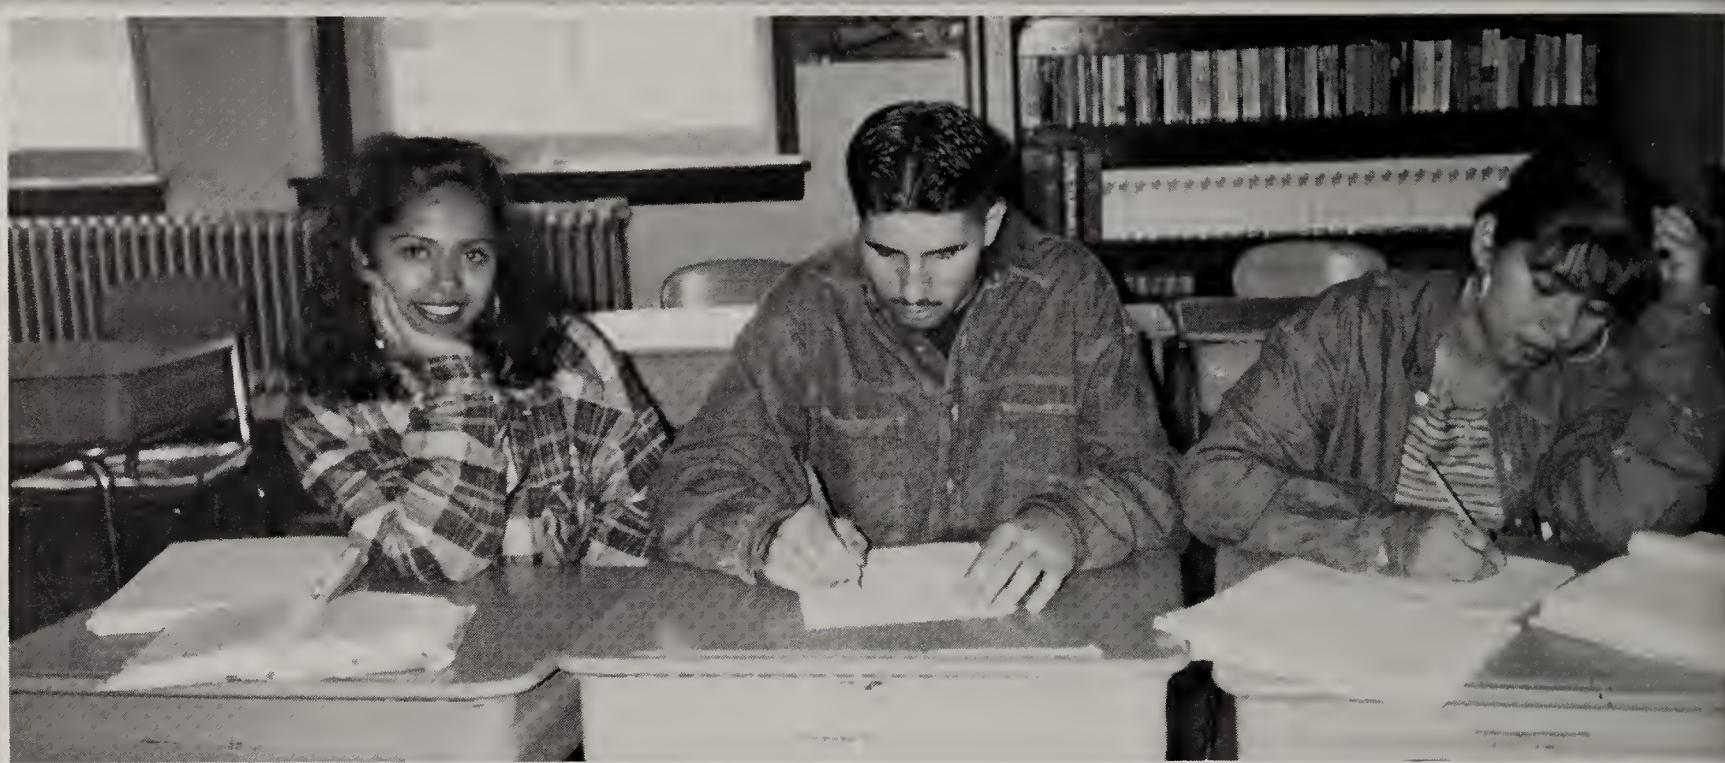

Myriam loves to have peace and quiet when she does her work.

Take your time, James. The answer will come to you.

Varden finds it difficult to concentrate with that flash going off in his eyes.

Vicky thinks she can get by with just a smile, but Carlos and Wendy know there is no substitute for hard work.

Are Philip and Huy posing for portraits in Ms. Ruby's art class?

Magda and Naomi seem to be admiring Christina's sunglasses.

Hong and Mun demonstrate the merits of cooperative learning.

Michelle tells her classmates that she can do this work with her eyes closed.

Anthony and Julian are looking forward to the future.

Rodolfo and Carlos are ready for the dating game.

Evelyn is surrounded by her many admirers.

Faculty And Staff

Members of the Class of '94 have seen many changes in administration, faculty, and staff during their years at Chelsea High School. Students who came to CHS as eighth graders have encountered three different superintendents, three different principals, and five different assistant principals. During their five years at CHS, students saw many wonderful teachers and staff members retire, and they saw many more wonderful teachers and staff members appointed.

Throughout all the changes in personnel, one thing did not change - the commitment of the administration, teachers, and staff to provide the students of CHS with the best possible educational experience needed to prepare them for their academic and vocational futures. The Class of '94 thanks the administrators, faculty, and staff for their efforts and successes, and for bringing stability to an often unstable situation.

With an enormous sense of gratitude, the Class of 1994, wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Slater for all of the help and support that he has offered us in the past few years.

He is not only a great advisor, but also a great science teacher. He has given us a warm feeling in his class with his caring and with his fluent explanations.

In addition, he has instructed and guided our class to be the best that it could be. He has assisted and stuck with our class throughout the many, many changes at Chelsea High School.

Mr. Slater, we all thank very much. We love you and we will definitely miss you. Best wishes from the Class of '94.

Dear Graduates:

Your high school graduation represents a major accomplishment. However, it is only the beginning of a future full of opportunity. Always remember that education is the key to success.

We wish you good luck and good fortune in all that you do.

Sincerely,

John Gawrys Jr.
John Gawrys, Jr.

Dear Members of the Class of '94:

I wish you well as you leave us to continue what I hope is a life full of learning, service to your fellow man and a fulfillment of your responsibility to improve the human condition. Graduation day is surely a celebration for you and your families because you have achieved a significant right of passage. We applaud your accomplishments and have been proud to be a part of this important phase of your life.

I hope that you have established some lasting bonds of friendship with classmates, and that your interest in pursuing knowledge has been sufficiently piqued by many members of the Chelsea High School faculty. Meet life's challenges with confidence, patience and good will.

I extend to all of you my sincerest and warmest greetings on this special occasion.

Sincerely,

Students at C.H.S. work very hard. As a change of pace from their hard work, students are offered a number of enjoyable diversions.

Students at C.H.S. enjoy attending the different dances that take place during the year. In November, there is the informal, but enjoyable Homecoming Dance. In February, students delight in attending the semi-formal Dinner Dance. Finally, there is the social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom.

Other enjoyable activities that occur during the year include Senior Dress-Up Day and Carnation Day. Students this year were also given a chance to participate in an exciting and rewarding theatrical performance of the musical, West Side Story.

Chelsea High is for learners, but it is also a place to have some good, clean fun.

Bewitched And Bewildered

Once again, Chelsea High School corridors were haunted by ghosts, gobblins, skeletons, and other creatures that go bump in the night. That's right! It was time for the annual Halloween Dress-up Day for seniors. As usual, there were a number of wild, zany, and creative costumes.

Following a fun-filled day of haunting classrooms, seniors moved their festivities to the cafeteria for an enjoyable ice cream party and a best costume contest. Judges, Ms. Boveri and Mrs. Dimarino had the difficult job of selecting winners. Third place winners, with their excellent make-up jobs, were Luz Oliver, Sokum Sum and James Horgan. In second place, was Melvin DeJesus as Steve Urkel- world's most favorite nerd. First place winners, resplendent in their wedding outfits, were Johanna Medina, Pisey Men, and Cathy Paiva. A bewitching good time was had all.

Junior-Senior Prom 1993

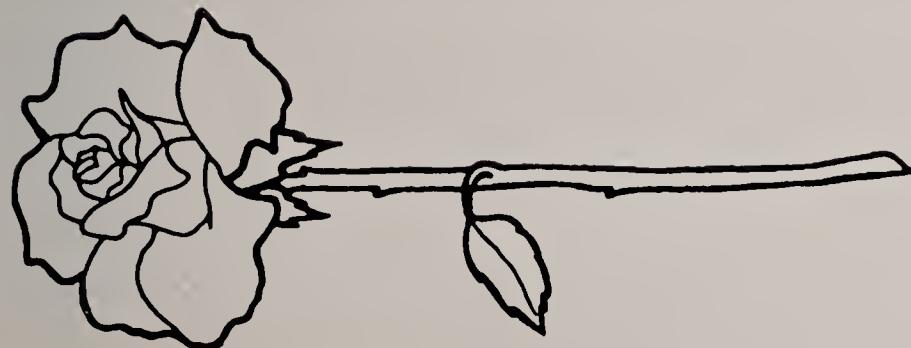

The Spirit Of Boston

The 1993 Junior - Senior Prom was certainly a most memorable event. This prom was the first one that a Chelsea class ever attended on board a cruise ship.

Students boarded the boat at about 7:00 and enjoyed a beautiful evening cruising around Boston Harbor.

The food was delicious, the company was great, and the evening was enchanting.

Homecoming Dance

The 1993-94 Homecoming Dance took place at the Winnisimmet Club on November 20. Students worked diligently preparing the hall to welcome back members of the Class of '93. Although the crowd was rather small, students from past and present had a wonderful time dancing, conversing, and reminiscing.

“We’re baaaack!” Presenting members of the Class of '93

Melvin agrees that money spent on the homecoming dance was money well spent.

Priscila and Jose are enjoying a brief rest between dances.

Ana welcomes everyone to come and join in the festivities.

Ms. Bradley and Mr. Cheffi were among faculty members who welcomed students past and present.

Joey and Sokum made certain that those in attendance were well "refreshed."

West Side

From September through February, we were hard at work preparing to perform "West Side Story." We started with a cast of 37. But over time the numbers went down to a hard-working core of 12 wonderful actors and actresses. Everyone learned to dance, to sing, to improvise, and to ACT! Most importantly, we all learned about making a commitment and seeing it through. We also saw the wonderful results of team-work. We watched as the beautiful set was built by Chelsea High students. We appreciated the beautiful programs, and the wonderful contributions made on lights, sound and back stage. A lot of people didn't think we could do it, and sometimes we doubted ourselves and each other. But finally, thanks to the hard work of the cast, and the support of parents, teachers and friends, we did three wonderful performances of "WEST SIDE STORY" on the stage of Chelsea High School.

Robert Cobb "See this stick?! It squeaks!"

Jennifer Sanabria "It's time to start the show!"

Raheim Martin and Nick Alejandro "Now, how do I get down from here?"

Katikie Appleberry, Mandie Dwyer, Jennifer Sanabria "I'm telling you, it's a fake tatoo!"

Robert Cobb, Jennifer Sanabria, Jamie Horgan "Tony! I want to wear it!"

Clubs And Organizations

When students need a change from their daily routines, Chelsea High provides many opportunities to accommodate this need. Students may take part in one or more of the many clubs and organizations offered to them. These clubs give students a chance to meet new people, to socialize, to learn, to discuss issues, to write, to design, to help out in the community, to grow, to have fun. For students who participate in these clubs, their education has been enriched. For those who chose not to, they have missed out on a wonderful experience.

Whether it was cold, rainy, or snowy, the CHS Cheerleaders were always there to root on the Mighty Red Devils football team. With hard work and dedication, these girls performed for the fans as best they could, while having a great time. At the end of the 1993 football season, a try-out was held and the basketball cheering squad doubled in size and in fun. Their enthusiasm and spirit helped the Red Devil basketball team through a very successful season. These Cheerleaders represent "Chelsea Pride" through and through. Congratulations!

Jobs For Bay State Graduates

Jobs for Bay State Graduates is a program designed to assist students in making the transition from high school to the world of work. Through weekly small group and individual sessions, the students are taught a series of employability skills topics. The topics include resume and application preparation, interviewing and telephone techniques, career vocabulary, public speaking, effective communication, cover letter preparation, personal survival and job search strategies. The long term goal for each participant is job placement relevant to their individual interest and abilities. Additionally, the members participate in activities centered around career preparation, social awareness, leadership development and responsibility.

Chelsea High Times

The Chelsea High Times is run by many talented students. The editor-in-chief, Michelle Ducharme, works very hard to make this newsletter a smashing success. Executive editor Roseann Bongiovanni and associative editor-in-chief Christina Ducharme work extremely hard to get the perfect layout for each editor. Sports editor Kim Lanzillo contributes greatly to fill the school with all the hot details of the sports scene. Editor Charlie Rivera and reporters Mimi Ho, Alexis Hightower, and Joey Bouche contribute articles to make the newspaper a success.

The Chelsea High Times fills the school in on all the latest happenings, gossip, and events.

The newspaper is also a huge success due to the constant help of advisor, Mrs. Ellen Criscione.

National Honor Society

Seniors

The National Honor Society is made up of a select group of juniors and seniors. Members must maintain a B average in their schoolwork as well as be active in community service, school clubs and activities, and school sports.

The National Honor Society members were involved in many activities during the 1993-1994 school year. One such activity involved selling calendars to raise money for needy causes. Other activities included the serving of Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner to the elderly, participation in the Chelsea Holiday Parade, and selling Holiday Stockings. Members also participated in the following: Elementary Internship Program, Spring Planting Project, Staff Appreciation Project, and a Blood Donor Drive.

The NHS members received 2 awards from the Massachusetts Leukemia Society for their participation in the "Pennies for Patients" fundraiser.

The NHS officers are as follows: Si Li (President), Luz Oliver (Vice-President), Christina Ducharme (2nd Vice-President), Michell Ducharme (Secretary), Rosita Velazquez (Treasurer).

Asian Club

Members of the Asian Club include the following: Ha Nguyen (Adviser), Hoang Tran, Bich Nguyen, Kim Tran, Tien Huynh, Linh Nguyen, Suong Tran, Dang Nguyen, Diem Nguyen, Truc Mach, Cuong Luu, Hien Pham, Truong Tran, Minh Vu, Thuy Nguyen, Duan Vo, Ha Duong, Loc Nguyen, Ngoc Vo, Vu Pham, Chau Tran, Ro Tran, Chien Vo, Hen Vuong, Sang Nguyen, Long Duong.

The Asian Club meets on a weekly basis. Attending the meetings gives members of Chelsea High's Asian community a chance to share experiences, discuss common issues, lend each other support, and make new friends. Meeting together gives the students an opportunity to make their transition into a new country an easier and more rewarding experience.

Latino Club

The Latino Club meets once a week, giving students an opportunity to experience many wonderful things. Students have a chance to share their varied Latino cultures, as well as to better understand the cultures of others. It is a club that affords students the opportunity to make new and lasting friendships, to help the community, and to become more involved in life at Chelsea High School.

Students listen attentively to directions for the next experiment.

Mass-Pep is a program sponsored by Wentworth Institute of Technology, and the Massachusetts Society of Engineers. The program is designed for students who have a strong interest in math, science, and engineering.

Students meet on a weekly basis to participate in science and engineering activities. Some of these activities have included the construction of pasta mobiles and the construction of shatter-proof egg boxes. Students have also conducted a number of aerodynamic experiments. Students also have the opportunity to attend field trips to different science and engineering facilities.

In addition to the field trips, students have an opportunity to attend and participate in programs conducted by local universities. Students may take part in the Harvard-Lowell Extension Program, the MIT Splash Program, and the Boston University Blast Program.

This year over 40 Chelsea High students have taken advantage of the Mass Pep program. For them it has been a great learning experience, a great opportunity to visit various science and engineering institutions, and to simply have a great time while exploring the exciting fields of science and engineering.

Faculty advisers for the program are Mr. Joseph Slater, Mr. Brad Toney, and Ms. Cheryl O'Brien. They have done an outstanding job in coordinating the program at Chelsea High School.

Yearbook Staff

If you are reading this article, thank a yearbook staff member. Without the efforts of a dedicated group of people, the yearbook would not exist. Staff members worked daily on designing layouts, composing and typing copy, labeling and cropping photos, and working on all the numerous tasks needed to create a yearbook. The staff included a great blend of both seniors and juniors who are to be commended for the time and effort they gave and for the great job they did.

Academic Decathlon

Challenging The Mind

The Academic Decathlon is a team of hard-working students who prepare to compete in an Olympic-like competition. The team competes in seven different subjects areas: language and literature, fine arts, mathematics, science, social studies, economics, and a Super Quiz. This year's topic was "The Documents of Freedom."

The team consisted of 15 members this year, ranging from sophomores and juniors, to the ever-popular seniors. Our team was advised by Ms. Jackie Gagnon, and the captain was Robert Cobb.

The team is dedicated to creating a positive school image, creating academic role models, changing students attitudes, and involving the community.

Science Team

North Shore Science League

Examining pond life, measuring the diffraction of light, and identifying household chemicals are just some of the challenges the Chelsea science team has taken on as part of the North Shore Science League. Each month the team competes in three different events with 24 other high schools in the North Shore Region. Some of schools are Pingree Prep school, and Somerville High School.

In January, the team brought home first place in the Rube Goldberg Competition. Their contraption ran a cart down a slope, which caused a bell to ring, then a power screwdriver pulled the car back up the slope, which threw an electrical switch which turned on a light bulb and raised the flag in victory.

Sports

Chelsea High athletes enjoyed very successful seasons during the '93-'94 school year. The football team showed steady improvement throughout the season, a season highlighted by a Thanksgiving Day victory over rival Pope John. Both the soccer and cross country teams were crowned Commonwealth Conference Champions. The volleyball team achieved a very respectable 9-7 record, while upsetting some very good teams. Finally, both the boys and girls basketball teams also had great years, providing their fans with many thrills throughout the season. It was truly a good year to be wearing the red and black.

The soccer team enjoyed its most successful season ever. Many records were established: most wins in a season, longest winning streak, and fewest losses, to mention a few. Capt. Jose Arreaga was selected to the CAC all star team along with seniors

Hugo Aldana, Aldo Rivera, and Hibret Geleta. The team defended its CAC title for the third time and qualified for the MIAA state tournament for the seventh time. The soccer team set the standard for Chelsea Pride.

Sixteen talented, dedicated players made up this year's volleyball team. The team played hard to achieve a very respectable 9-7 record. Under the direction of Coach Liz Bouras, and inspired by seniors Johanna Medina and Jovanna Pagan, the team began the season in great fashion, winning three of its first four games.

The season continued with some close, disappointing losses, along with some exciting, satisfying major upsets. Though a small team in height, the Lady Devils showed their talent through consistent play, hard work, and an ability to move around the court with skill and agility. The team gained the respect of their opponents with their all around play and with their good sportsmanship while wearing the red and black.

Blocking the ball is one of the many skills learned by Sandy.

Nice hit, Joanna!

The team always has a good warm-up before the game.

Nice and easy, girls. Set it up.

Wendy soars high in the air to finish off a nice volley!

The football season was a season of near misses and a season of steady progress. The squad played extremely hard, and, though often outmanned, the players managed to be competitive and give themselves a chance to win most of their games. While some people might give up after so many heartbreaking losses, these players continued to show a lot of heart, and great progress could be seen with each passing contest. This steady progress, dedication, and hard work ultimately paid off when the team soundly defeated Thanksgiving rival Pope John in a nearly flawlessly executed game. It was a great way to end a season of close games and near misses.

Chelsea High School's 1993 Cross Country Team captured the Commonwealth Conference Lower Division while defeating every divisional rival with ease. The team coasted to its first title in fifteen years. Captains Xavia Mungia and Amilca Goncalves led the team with outstanding performances and were named to the Conference All-Star team, along with first year runner Agnelo Ribiero. First year coach Bob Fee was named coach of the year, leading Chelsea's harriers to their second consecutive winning season.

The boys basketball team displayed a great deal of hustle and desire in completing a very successful season. The team lost some very close, but exciting contests. Despite these heartbreaking defeats, the players never gave up.

A combination of pride, determination, and talent resulted in qualification for post-season play. Congratulations on yet another outstanding season.

Three years of dedication and hard work have paid off for the girls basketball team this year. They have enjoyed their first winning season since 1985 and are on their way to becoming the second women's team ever in Chelsea High history to qualify for post-tournament play.

Led by seniors Isidra Quinones and Lisa Johnson, this team has proven that pride and determination, along with a hard work ethic can equal success. Every player has contributed, on and off the court, through heart, hustle, and spirit to achieve one team goal.

Being the first eighth graders to attend C.H.S we were faced with many challenges. Of these, the most difficult challenge was becoming a part of the school. At first this seemed easy, because we were treated like the rest of the school. When we began to feel like part of the school, they put us into clusters, isolating us from the rest of the school, giving us certain restrictions such as not being able to go out for lunch, and only having four teachers with the same classmates every day.

After the eighth grade we were promoted to the ninth grade with a new principal (Dr. Wasserman). Everything was the same; we had the same teachers, same classmates, and still no outside lunch.

Entering the tenth grade we left the security of the cluster and were finally given the privilege of outside lunch, and we also met new teachers.

When we were in the eleventh grade, we became more involved with the school. Many of us joined clubs, got involved with sports, and began to raise money for our class so we could go to our social gatherings.

Now, in our senior year, we learned to deal with the trimester program and the constant changes that were bestowed upon us. Our new acting principal, Ms. Bradley, has been an outstanding principal. Financially, we have pulled together and raised enough money to pay for the Dinner Dance and the Senior Class Prom, which will be held at the Danvers Yacht Club.

Now most of us are going to challenge college and try to get a degree. We feel that this is the most difficult challenge we have to face and we are prepared to face it. Hopefully, at our twenty-fifth reunion, we will find that everybody has succeeded in life.

Ad Committee: James Farden, Rosita Velazquez, Sigfredo Feliciano

The Class of '94 wishes to thank the many businesses and individuals who so generously contributed to our yearbook fundraising efforts by purchasing a yearbook ad. Without these contributions, publishing the book would not be possible.

Many thanks also go to the students who helped to solicit ads. Special thanks go to Ms. Cheryl O'Brien and her fundraising staff James Farden, Rosita Velazquez, and Sigfredo Feliciano.

We would also like to extend a special thanks to the members of the Boston University Management Team for their most generous contribution.
